

Price City Park Playground

This park is very well kept; the grounds are always beautiful with flowers and plants that are well taken care of; there are also tennis courts.

A great place to go and relax and let the kids have fun; a family area for picnics and togetherness.

The park used to have several swings and other equipment for bigger children; they were moved to a park 7 miles away. Bigger kids have no equipment to play on now at Price Park.